

SUMMER PROGRAM SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

The Overseas Student Program (OSP) at Ben-Gurion University (BGU) is excited to offer scholarships for students attending either of the two four-week summer courses as well as the summer 2019 Ulpan. The scholarship will cover up to $1,500 of the tuition and will be applied to the recipient's invoice from the OSP.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

In order to process your request for a scholarship, you must submit the following application, along with the additional personal statement, to

Sarah Broad
Manager of the Overseas Student Programs Department
Sbroad@aabgu.org

In return for receiving this scholarship, it is understood that you will be available for publicity and recruitment efforts on behalf of the OSP on your campus and/or in your home area for a period of one year upon return from Israel.

APPLICATION ESSAY

Please submit a 400-500 word essay that addresses how receiving this scholarship will assist you in achieving your study abroad goals for next semester.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: May 15th

Please note: applications will be reviewed and scholarships awarded on a rolling basis

APPLICANT AND PARENT/GUARDIAN DECLARATION

I agree to inform the New York office of the Overseas Student Program of any change in my financial situation while I am applying to and after I have been accepted to the OSP. I understand that I may be asked to report financial information including income tax returns for myself and my parents, and all current financial aid.

I will promptly report any non-BGU financial aid awarded for the period that I will be attending Ben-Gurion University of the Negev, including scholarships, loans, grants, fellowships, and private contributions from relatives and non-relatives. I understand that any unreported aid and aid reported after a BGU scholarship award may result in the partial or total revocation of my BGU award.

I HEREBY AUTHORIZE THE NEW YORK OFFICE OF THE OVERSEAS STUDENT PROGRAM TO VERIFY THE FINANCIAL INFORMATION PROVIDED FOR ME.
